Record Travel Year Seen

Nevada Reports No Construction On U. S. Route 50

Co-incident with the announcement by auto tourist bureaus that travel this year, for the third successive season, is expected to reach new record proportions, comes a report from the Nevada State Highway Department which shows that the existing route of U. S. 50 across that state is paved throughout and in first class shape.

There will be no construction in Nevada this year on U. S. 50, although there are two sections of construction on U. S. 40.

Concerning U. S. 50, the road report says it is 463 miles from Lakeside, Lake Tahoe, to Wendover, paved throughout and no construction.

U. S. 40, says the report, is paved throughout, although there are two construction projects. One, for five miles between Reno and Lawtons is 65 per cent complete and detours are provided.

The other, from Elko for 17 miles west, is 15 per cent complete. Oiled detours are provided for 13 miles and traffic goes through construction for four miles.

George S. Grant, manager of the touring bureau of the C. S. A. A., reports that inquiries for travel information at touring bureau counters are running about 25 per cent ahead of the volume last year at this time.

A noticeable trend is toward a wider range of touring and longer duration of trips than for the past several years, the report stated.

Motorists requesting maps and other guidance in planning trips are showing a heavy preference for western (Turn to Page 3)

Hornblower To Head Eagles

State Aerie Will Meet Next Year At San Diego

WATSONVILLE (UP)—Delegates to the 34th annual state convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were returning to their homes today after election state officers and selecting San Diego as their 1938 convention city.

William Hornblower, San Francisco, state assemblyman, was elected state president.

Other officers elected were Edward Smith, Oakland, vice-president; Roy Driggers, Porterville, chaplain; William Hagerty, San Francisco, secretary; George Vice, Sacramento, treasurer; A. M. Thomas, Vallejo, conductor; George Ackerman, Antioch, inner guard, and A. B. Coyle, Stockton, outer guard.

GIRL KILLED AT CARNIVAL AT SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Official action banning further permits for traveling carnivals appeared a possible outcome today of the death of 23-year-old Margaret Hill, fatally injured when she was hurled from an "octopus" ride at a carnival here.

B. L. Terry, 27-year-old salesman whom Miss Hill was to have married this month, told police, centrifugal force sent the girl hurtling over the side of the whipping amusement car. Her skull was fractured and she died enroute to a hospital.

District Attorney Otis D. Babcock said he would conduct an inquiry into the accident, the third at the show in two weeks. A small girl previously was injured when a car broke loose from restraining chains and struck her to the ground. A Rio Linda school student was injured in an accident similar to that which killed Miss Hill.

The Sacramento women's council recommended to the city council on Thursday that no more permits be granted to such shows and carnivals.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barker were week end visitors at San Francisco.

Supervisor William Breedlove was in town from Georgetown Monday in attendance at the board meeting.

Relief Bill Gets Committee Okeh

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee today voted unanimous approval for the $1,500,000,000 relief appropriation bill, carrying the controversial "localities must contribute 40 per cent" clause and continuing the life of Public Works Administration for two more years.

SCOUTS SEEKING JOBS FOR CAMP

Lads Need Chance To Earn $7.50 For Week At Audrain

Fourteen El Dorado County Boy Scouts have registered for a week at the Golden Empire Area Boy Scout Camp at Lake Audrain, but there are other boys who are hoping that someone will give them a chance to earn $7.50 so that they will be able to attend the camp.

Anyone who has a job for a Boy Scout, which will help him to reach his $7.50 goal, should communicate with Harry S. Brown. The telephone number is 169.

According to word received from the area headquarters, Camp Audrain has a capacity of 80 Boy Scouts and will be operated in three periods during the middle of the summer, the first opening on July 11 for one week.

The second period will open July 18 for one week and the third will open July 25 for one week. A Scout's expenses at the camp for one week are $7.50.

Fourteen El Dorado County Scouts have registered and if some other boys can get jobs to do which will enable them to earn the $7.50, they also will attend.

Court Revision Plan Rapped

Senate Judiciary Committee Deems Idea "Dangerous"

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today called upon Congress to defeat President Roosevelt's "utterly dangerous" Supreme Court reorganization program "so emphatically that its parallel will never again be presented to a free American people."

The committee majority presented the most controversial constitutional issue of many years to the Senate in a formal report that denounced the administration judiciary bill as tending to:

1. Obscure the "real purposes" of the administration.
2. Undermine the American Constitutional system.
3. Punish the Supreme Court by forcibly and unconstitutionally subjecting it to the will of the executive department.
4. Break down constitutional safeguards against "autocratic dominance."

The report was approved by 10 of the 18 members of the committee.

Faculty Members To Wed On Tuesday

Friends report that Walter Dodds and Miss Eunice McDaniel, high school faculty members, will be married Tuesday at San Francisco. Among those who will go from Placerville to attend the affair is Miss Maxine Baer.

The couple will return to Placerville in the fall and Mr. Dodds will resume teaching duties at the high school. Miss McDaniel does not plan to continue teaching.

Sonny Dodini is a patient at a Sacramento hospital, under the care of Dr. D. W. Babcock, for the treatment of pneumonia. His condition Monday was reported as satisfactory.

District Attorney and Mrs. Henry S. Lyon and daughter, Evelyn, leave Tuesday for San Diego to attend the annual convention of district attorneys.

Broker Jailed By Bondsmen

J. A. Rosenberg Is Surrendered On Saturday Night

J. A. Rosenberg, 50, San Francisco broker, was lodged in the county jail Saturday night when he was surrendered by his bondsmen.

Rosenberg is charged with Joseph Murphy, also of San Francisco, with a corporate securities act violation in connection with their stock dealings with Leo and Kathleen Flynn of Georgetown, in which, it is said, the Flynn's were likely to lose about $25,000.

Murphy is at liberty on bonds of $5,000, as was Rosenberg, prior to his being surrendered Saturday night, night, awaiting a preliminary hearing now set for June 23.

Both men arranged the bonds through a bail bond broker.

County authorities were unable to suggest any reason for Rosenberg's surrender by his bondsmen except that it was apparent that the contract into which the bonding concern had entered was no longer satisfactory to them.

Whether the bondsmen could have been under the impression that Rosenberg might be planning to leave the state is not known.

In any event, he was taken into custody by the bondsmen and a San Francisco police officer and bondsmen were discharged automatically when he was given to the custody of the sheriff Saturday night.

It was indicated Rosenberg may seek to arrange other bonds.

E. Vennewitz Home Burns

Origin Of Blaze Undetermined; Two Firemen Injured

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Vennewitz, on Hazard street, was destroyed by a fire of unknown origin shortly after 1 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Two fire-fighters, Alton Taylor and Bart Arundel, suffered lacerations to their hands and required first aid treatment and a doctor was called to attend Mrs. Vennewitz' aged mother, who was suffering from shock and excitement.

The fire broke out shortly after 1 o'clock and although an immediate alarm was turned in, the roof of the residence was ablaze and the fire was burning in the kitchen of the dwelling by the time the firemen reached the scene. The blaze had gained such headway that the firemen were unable to save the structure.

Several articles of furnishings, the piano and bedclothing were saved. Early Monday afternoon the family had been unable to account for the household dog and it was feared that he, possibly, had lost his life in the fire.

Mr. Vennewitz has been for many years secretary of the Placerville Volunteer Fire Department and his stepson, Charles Maylene, is also a member of the department.

DIAMOND ENDS SCHOOL YEAR WEDNESDAY

Pupils, teachers, trustees and parents of the Diamond Springs school district will close the school year on Wednesday evening with graduation exercises at Landis Hall, Diamond Springs.

Certificates of eighth grade graduation will be presented to ten pupils and the school will receive credit for its 152-day year.

The commencement speaker will be the Rev. John Dunlop, well-known El Dorado County resident, who returned recently on a year's leave from his missionary work in the Philippines.

A. W. Glendenning, associate construction engineer, was on Eldorado Forest Monday on inspection. He is assigned to the regional forest office at San Francisco.

200 TO ATTEND ANNUAL CAMP

4-H Clubs And Farm Centers Unite In Weekend Outing

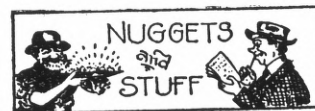

Preparations are being made by the committee in charge to accommodate 200 El Dorado County 4-H Clubs and Farm Bureau members at their second annual joint over-night camp, which will be held June 19 and 20 at the county campground at Lake Tahoe.

The committee in charge, with S. A. Bivans as camp director, reports the attendance may exceed this number, but that a survey of farm centers and 4-H clubs has indicated that 200 probably will be present.

The general program provides for establishment of the camp during the early afternoon and this will be followed by a general recreational program.

Following the evening meal there will be a campfire program with the various farm centers and 4-H clubs contributing stunts to the program.

It is hoped that Frank Spurrer, Northern California 4-H Club leader, will be present to assist in this program.

Well, thanks for the tip, but there ain't no story.

At least, the coroner doesn't know anything about it, and he's the first person we go to when someone reports an auto wreck.

This wasn't just a wreck, it was a wreck and a fire and "seven people burned to death."

Well, the coroner didn't know about it. Neither did the steward at the county hospital, unless—

"Unless," suggested the coroner, "it could have been that fellow who passed out Sunday about noon on the road over from Kelsey. We took him to the county hospital."

"That fellow?" answered Steward Warren Tobey.

"Yes, I heard a lot about him, too. I heard he was pretty hard to handle and that I finally had to knock him out."

"Well, there's nothing to it. He stayed with us a while and then felt better and went home."

But, thanks for the tip, anyway.

The employees of Raley's Drive-In Market held one of their regular get-togethers Saturday night, ladies night, at the Forum Cafe cocktail lounge. A banquet was served after which dancing and a social time was enjoyed.

GRANDSTAND Gossip

By Bob Vivian

Placerville's batting power will be weakened somewhat by the loss of Jack Woerner, the heaviest hitter on the club, who leaves this week for Corvallis, Oregon, where he has employment. Jack played his last game for the Bartletts Sunday, and made his bow by driving in the winning run. Woerner, a dangerous hitter at all times, will be missed by all fans of the team who had always liked to see him come to bat.

Bob Begovich will most likely take Woerner's place in the outfield. Begovich, playing right field Sunday, collected singles on his first two trips to the plate, his first hit driving in a Bartlett run. Begovich is also capable of holding down a place in the outer garden and while not a flashy player, can be counted on to help the Barts in their quest for the title.

That Mike Backerich knows baseball, could easily be seen Sunday, when he threw Smyth out at third. Speck's hit was about three steps from the bag, but had Backerich elected to get the hitter, his throw to third would have been late. Instead, the classy first baseman fired the ball across the infield, catching Smyth going into third. That throw undoubtedly won the ball game, because Irwin followed with a long fly to left.

Billy Clark, also came up with a smart piece of baseball, in which Backerich also had a hand. In the fourth inning Jackson walked both Pilliard and I. Smyth successively. Speck then hit to Visintainer at short, Mike coming in fast to field the ball, and throw the runner out at first. Pilliard overran third by about ten feet, Clark sneaking around from short to third to take Backerich's throw, and catch Pilliard off the bag.

Loomis has a classy ball club, and may yet get into the playoff. The club has dropped three extra inning contests, two by a 3-2 score. The Red infield, playing the brand of ball they did Sunday, came up with some pretty plays. Loomis also has some fair hitters, but it was the pitchers' day Sunday and neither team did much with the bat.

The Barts were hitting hard enough but Tinkle had them hitting in the air, the Loomis outfield having thirteen putouts. Triano, in left for the Reds had six, which included several nice running catches. The Barts outfield had but five chances, and this, with the two hits that went to the outfield off Jackson, gives a total of seven balls hit to the outfield in a ten inning game. That should serve to give an idea of the game.

"Professor" Jack Woerner reached into his bag of tricks for a one-base hit in the tenth inning at Loomis Sunday to give the Bartletts a 3 to 2 win over the Reds in their own back yard.

It was almost as though the "professor" knew that a single and no more was needed to save the day, for the old hit and run was up and Bill Clark scored from second base to break up a tight pitching duel between Reggie Jackson and Tinkle.

Jackson and Tinkle were mighty stingy with their hits, the former allowing but 4 and the Loomis chucker 6, two of them being bunched in the tenth to produce the winning run.

In eight of the ten frames Loomis was held hitless by the southpaw slants of the young Bartlett hurler, who at that, almost met defeat when Loomis scored twice in the seventh on three-base hits. A long throw by Reeder, cut down what would have been.

Alturas Murder Trial Opens

Defense Succeeds In Dodging Quiz By Alienists

ALTURAS (UP)—Victorious in the first clash of his legal fight for life, Harry French, 30, went to trial in Superior Court today on a murder charge arising from the slaying of Claude L. McCracken, Alturas publisher.

French assertedly shot McCracken to death as the climax to a feud between the editor and French's parents, who publish the weekly Alturas Plain Dealer.

In the columns of his mimeographed publication, McCracken carried stories of McCrackens who were heroes and French's who were scoundrels and thieves. Stories of persons named McCracken who were in dispute found their way into the Plain Dealer as the feud continued.

The first legal joust of French's trial arose when the defendant, who has pleaded not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity, refused to submit to examination by court-appointed alienists.

Defense Counsel Luke S. Howe of Sacramento, succeeded in forcing District Attorney A. K. Wylie to abandon plans for the examination, despite warnings he would be held in contempt of court.

Johnson Nominated For War Office

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Louis A. Johnson of West Virginia, former National American Legion commander, to be Assistant Secretary of War.

Johnson, if approved by the Senate, will fill the important post left vacant when Assistant Secretary of War H. H. Woodring became secretary following the death of Secretary George H. Dern.

Miss Maggie Akins, Elwin Ramsey, Henry Steitz and George Miller made the round trip to Vallejo and back, Sunday, and while there visited some friends.

Nude Bathing Legalized

Ohio Town Starts Drive To Repeal 90-Year-Old Laws

SANDUSKY, O. (U)—The steel-rigid laws of 1846 will be revised and repealed under a city commission's drive against obsolete regulations.

The laws at that time were so numerous and quirky, that even law-abiding citizens "looked before they acted," lest they break some musty unknown regulation.

One regulation, passed in 1853 and unrepealed to date, provides for nude bathing in Sandusky Bay between sunset and sunrise. The regulation states that "it shall be unlawful for any person, in an unclothed and naked condition, to go into or bathe in the open waters of Sandusky Bay, within the corporate limits of the city, at any time after the rising of the sun and before dark."

A law passed in 1862 forbade throwing objects at horses, carriages, wagons and birds. In 1872 it was unlawful for "any boy under the age of 18 years to jump on or off from any railroad car within the corporate limits of the city."

"No lamp-pole climbing," lighting or extinguishing public lights, were "shalt nots," and carried heavy penalties.

The "drug store cowboys" were without prairies under the law which said "loafing on sidewalks" and also "fences adjacent thereto," were misdemeanors. Use of obscene, insulting or abusive language in the hearing of citizens made a person subject to penalty.

An old statute stated, "Street cars shall at no time be driven at a greater rate of speed than 6 miles an hour" and that at certain intersections "the rate of speed shall not be faster than a walk."

Stacking of hay, straw or fodder within five rods of any building where fire was used was also punishable.

Other laws provided against hanging on moving vehicles; music, staid or women in places where intoxicating liquor was sold, and the keeping of certain quantities of gun powder for

THE Book Mark

By JANE VOILES

We wish that book sellers would publish lists of the old books that are being read just as they publish lists of new books. A New York book seller assures us that Dickens's books are sold frequently, while an instructor in short story writing declares that neither Dickens nor Scott are read today. We would like to know how many people read Anthony Trollope? We would like to know which play of Shakespeare is the most widely read outside of class rooms? Does any one read Ruskin or Carlyle today? Is it possible that the two long novels, "Anthony Adverse" and "Gone With the Wind" will revive an interest in long novels and make readers curious about "Clarissa Harlowe" and "Tom Jones"? For every sprightly modern autobiography like Noel Coward's "Present Indicative" and Burton Rascoe's "Before I Forget" does any read Cellini or Pepsy? For Dr. Heiser's "An American Doctor's Odyssey" how many people read that mental odyssey of a doctor who wrote long ago, Sir Thomas Browne's "Religio Medici."

"The Corpse in the Derby Hat," by Howard Swigget (LB) is one of the mystery stories in the June list with an intriguing title. A western thriller and mystery rolled into one is Bliss Lomax' "Canyon of Golden Skulls" (Mac). There is a mystery story with a musical title by Kurt Steel "Murder In G Sharp" (BM) but there is no hint of a corpse hidden in a grand piano. Lovers of the gruesome will want to read "Death's Mannikin" by Max Axford (A-C). It is described as a yarn of "rural England's particular brand of voodoo." Agatha Christie's famous detective Hercules Poirot "sleuths" effectively in her latest "Dead Man's Mirror" (DM). Wm. Sloan's "To Walk in the Night" (FR) takes a metaphysical turn. The ever-popular and jocose Woodhouse has seven new stories, published under the title, "The Crime Wave at Blandings." A mystery writer who never disappoints her readers is Mignon Eberhart. Her latest, "The Pattern" (CC) is a murder spree at a lakeside summer resort. "The Six Queer Things," by C. St. John Sprague, has a spiritualistic seance as a background.

Those who regard the mystery story as a deleterious influence should set their minds at rest. President Roosevelt reads them and Woodrow Wilson before him, read them. They were a favorite form of reading of the late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. We could name any number of famous people who are devotees of this "sport of noble minds."

That morning we were determined not to stop at the bus outside of the old book store where we idle away our time and spend our loose change, but from a distance we saw a shabby green book on top of a pile and it began to lure us as persistently as the Sirens lured Ulysses. When we passed by, we had to know what that book was or perish.

It proved to be "The American Woman's Home" written by Catherine Beecher and her sister Harriet Beecher Stowe and published in 1869. We bought it for the grand sum of five cents.

We were prepared to read with a superior smile about the dark ages of housekeeping before efficiency and scientific management be the watch words. But in spite of frequent quotations from the scriptures and admonishments that would be considered "quaint" today the book is written with a deal more spirit and a livelier style than many of the modern books on domestic science.

Our favorite chapter is the one on home decoration. The ideal of that period was mid-Victorian when "a poetical air" was desirable above all else. Saint wall paper with a maroon border was correct. For those who could not afford Brussels carpet, for the parlor matting was in good taste while white muslin curtains were war-wanted to give an astonishing touch of grace and elegance especially if they were topped with lambrequins (fore-runners of the valance). Careful instructions are given on how to construct lambrequins. The Beecher sisters suggested suitable pictures for your walls, not replicas of Velasquez or Ver Meer, but subjects to quicken the love of nature as "Bierstadt's 'Sunset in the Yosemite Valley,' and Eastman Johnson's 'Barefoot Boy.'" We don't know whether to blush with shame or beam with joy when we admit to having a Barefoot Boy stored away in the attic. Instructions are given on how to make frames, "pretty rustic frames," to be decorated with moss or ocean shells. Suggestions for making hanging baskets out of old tin pans and halves of coconut shells make us reminiscent. And does any one remember putting sweet potatoes (instead of avocado pits) in a bowl of water to bloom?

Indoor floral decoration was an elaborate art. An ivy and similar trellis was considered smart in a library to suggest a woodland bower, while a potted fuchsia or a calla lily were considered peers in verdant ornament. But what will be said of our mode of flower arrangement in the year 2000? There is this much to be said for the book in that it makes a genuine effort to elevate housework to the dignity of a profession. And if the Beecher sisters liked to quote scripture, why we picked up a copy of the June Pictorial Review and the second article by one of our favorites, Cecelia Caroline Cole is a re-wording of scripture passages. So for all that, perhaps the book is not so antiquated.

idea of the brand of ball the Camino youth was pitching.

Tinkle is another fast ball pitcher. He has plenty of control and gave the Barts nothing they could hit very far.

Manager Warren sat on the bench Sunday, while he was playing Begovich in right, this necessitated the shifting of Woerner to center and Reeder to left. Begovich was one of the two hitters to garner two hits, Clark being the other.

The umpires had a tough day at Loomis Sunday. They had to call some close plays. Both the play on Speck at the plate, and Clark's infield single in the tenth, brought arguments from the Loomis bench.

and Prince .320. The Barts are fourth in team batting in the league.

Scoop Thurman's Lions suffered a setback by the Lincoln Black Cats, Sunday, and Folsom defeated Auburn to move into second place. The standings leave Colfax and Loomis with a .500 mark, and either team can yet get into the playoff.

According to Cliff Swesey, who reports from Scoop Thurman, Wheatland has dropped from the league. The Roma Wine team of Sacramento wants to replace the hop pickers, to finish the balance of the schedule. A meeting of the directors will be necessary, and if the Capital City nine is to play, they will be here Sunday against the Bartletts.

GRANT JOHNSON GRADUATES AT STANFORD

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson and daughter, Barbara, were at Stanford University on Sunday, attending the annual commencement at which Grant S. Johnson took a master's degree in business administration.

Mr. Johnson is a graduate of El Dorado County high school and is at present located at Whittier.

Lake Valley Man Succumbs

Steward Warren D. Tobey reports the death at the county hospital late Sunday night of a man named Griggs.

Mr. Griggs was brought to Placerville Sunday afternoon from Lake Valley, in the care of Dr. Hadden.

The steward reports he was unable to obtain any information concerning Mr. Griggs, but that Mr. Griggs has a son in Lake Valley who, it was expected, would be here late today or Tuesday.

Bartletts Win In 10 Frames

The winning run, when the heavy nipped Speck at the plate in that same inning. Loomis collected its other hit, a single by Bart Smyth in the opening stanza.

The Barts had been holding a 2-0 lead going into the seventh, scoring an unearned tally in the second when Begovich drove a hit in to right to score Backerich, who had gained first on Francisconi's error. He went to second when Prince drew a free trip to first.

Placerville, held to one hit, during the next three frames, a rightfield single by Begovich, scored again in the sixth when Mike Visintainer, getting the only extra base swat of the tilt doubled to center scoring Eddie Reeder. Eddie had been presented with a free trip to the initial sack by southpaw Tinkle.

The way Jackson had been pitching, these two runs looked big enough, but big Al Pilliard, who at one time held down first base for the locals, crossed up the Bart infield by laying a perfect bunt down the third base line, reaching first without a play being made for him. The play seemed to upset the Barts to the point where Jackson issued a pass to Irv Smyth. With the infield in close, Speck drove a single between third and short, Pilliard scoring with the first Loomis tally.

Jackson then bore down to get rid of Irwin, Loomis third basemen, and no weak hitter, by striking him out on five pitches. This relieved the tension somewhat, but with the infield still in close, Francisconi hit through short into left field and Smyth scored the tying run, Speck, attempting to score on the hit, was nailed at the plate, none too soon, by Reeder's peg from the outfield. Gordon ended the rally, hitting to Clark at short and was out at first.

The Bart infield pulled Jackson out of a bad spot in the ninth after getting him in trouble. I. Smyth led off by hitting to Visintainer at third, but Backerich dropped Mike's throw, Smyth being safe. Prince's throw to second was low, Smyth also being safe at the halfway mark.

With no outs and the winning run on second, Backerich came up with the prettiest play seen on any Placerville League diamond in some time. Backerich took Speck's hit near first base, made no attempt to get the runner but instead, fired the ball across to third to nab Smyth who had started for that corner. Had Backerich played for the hitter, Smyth would have been safe at third, when he could have easily scored on Irwin's long fly to left. Speck, who was on first, was out stealing, Prince to Neil.

The winning run of the hotly contested game came in the tenth, when Clark beat out an infield hit, was advanced to second by Neil's sacrifice hit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nickols will leave on Wednesday for a forest lookout station near Kyburz, where Mr. Nickols will be employed for the summer in charge of that station. Until just recently Mr. Nickols was employed as assistant manager at the local Safeway store.

LINCOLN WINS OVER COLFAX 10 TO 6

COLFAX—An over-confident Colfax ball club lost a ragged-played ball game Sunday, going down to defeat at the hands of the lowly Lincoln Black Cats to the tune of 10 to 6. The Lions made a total of five costly errors and were unable to hit the offerings of Charlie Perry, who made a comeback on the mound.

The Black Cats played inspired ball and hit the ball to all corners of the lot for a total of sixteen base hits. The score:

Colfax	6	7	5
Lincoln	10	16	2

Batteries—Brock, Kelly and Simmons; Perry and Martin.

and scored on Woerner's blow into center.

Loomis again had the tying tally on the sacks in their half of the extra frame. Jackson issued his fifth pass of the game by walking Francisconi, who was advanced to second on a sacrifice by Gordon. Again in a tough spot, Jackson forced Whitney, a pinch hitter, and Triano to hit to second and short respectively, ending the game and assuring Placerville of a place in the championship playoff.

Easy TO CUT FOOD BILLS

Do you know about "cold pack" canning of fruits and vegetables? It is easy to do the simplified electric way. And you will be surprised and pleased with the money you can save on food you preserve yourself.

Here is how it is done with the hard work made easy by the modern electric range. You wash the fruit or vegetables. Then place them in the jars on a broiler pan. You put the jars and pan in the oven of the electric range cold and process in the jars. The electric range oven with its automatic temperature control simplifies other canning methods because it eliminates pre-heating of the jars and the tiresome watching and stirring while preserving.

The modern electric range with heat that is measured with the accuracy of electricity can simplify all of your cooking. Come in and learn the facts about electric cookery. You can afford to cook this clean, accurate, time and money-saving electric way. Prices as low as $95 plus easy terms.
